Dancer Spotlight

Meet Zuriel, he is a 5th grader at Veterans Park Academy for the Arts, in his 7th season dancing at Footnotes, and in his 3rd year as a member of the LA Stars Competition Team.

He recently auditioned and received the part of Schwartz in the production of "A Christmas Story" at Broadway Palm Dinner Theatre in Fort Myers. The show runs from November 23rd through December 25th. Tickets for the show can be purchased from the Broadway Palms website.

Note: All children are double cast, a list of shows Zuriel performs in is available at the front desk or simply ask the box office when you call for tickets.

Holiday Show Information

We are only doing three holiday shows this year. We will not be performing in the Hospital Tree Lighting this year.

For all the shows please have your child wear black leggings, a red or green shirt and dance shoes. (Note: shirt can be decorated or plain). Ballet students can add a black skirt over leggings if they choose. Please arrive 15 minutes prior to show time. Make sure that one parent picks up the child after he/she performs.

St Raphael Festival Show - This is located across from Walmart. The performance stage is under the large tent. There may be a small parking fee for the festival.

Friday, December 1, 2017 at 5:45pm

Lehigh Acres Town Center Tree Lighting - This is the plaza where the studio is located. Please drop and pick up your child from the studio. Stick around for Santa to make his appearance.

Sunday, December 17, 2017 at 3pm

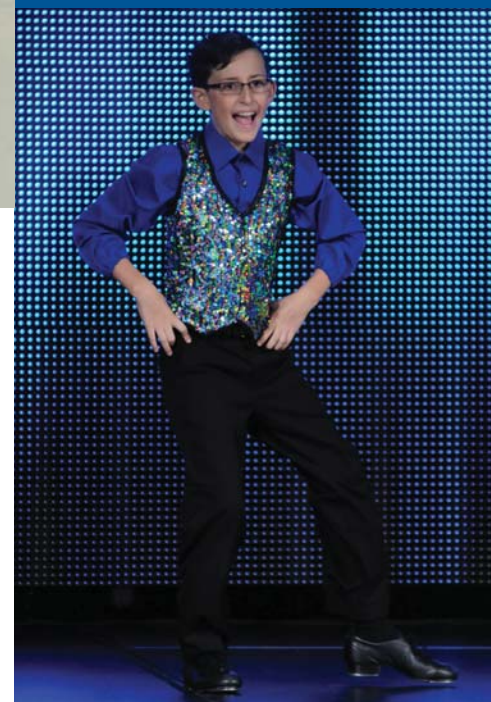

Gulf Coast Town Center Show - This is at the stage by the pirate ship playground. This is a great show for videotaping your child's performance so come prepared.

The show line up will be emailed to you sometime during the week prior to the Nov 19th show. All of our holiday shows will use the same line up.
